

Translation of Dialogue 5

Vocabulary for the dialogue:

- Verbs for Commands
  - Put
  - Complete
  - Need
  - Use
  - Stay
  - Return (an object)
  - Drink
  - Change (clothes)
  - Return (person)
  - Call
  - Wait

Dialogue:

MGH – Good afternoon. Welcome to Radiology

Client – Good afternoon. I was sent here for a stomach exam.

MGH – Very well I have to put on an identification bracelet and please complete this form.

Client – Could you lend me a pen?

MGH – World you repeat that more slowly?

Client – Yes, I need a pen.

MGH – Oh! You can use this one.

Client – Thank you. What do I do with the form alter I finish filling it out?

MGH – Keep it until someone calls you for your exam and return it to the desk when the procedure is over.

Client – And what do I do after that?

MGH – Drink this liquid slowly. Please put on the robe.

Client – What is this liquid for?

MGH – This liquid Hill help the radiologist interpret the images.

Client – So I need to take off my clothes?

MGH – You can leave your underwear, your socks and shoes on. Take off everything that is metal, including your bra.